Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

In the recent past, a number of occasions have arisen on which it would have been desirable to have prints made of the original tracings on the job. For this and for purposes of safekeeping, it is requested that the drawings be returned at your earliest convenience.

In mailing the drawings, please give special care to the wrapping so as to protect them from damage. Air Mail will not be required, but "Special Handling" is believed to be in order.

Very truly yours,
